

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MICHAEL P'S- OPA! OPA! GYRO GREEK FEAST!!!

GEORGE'S GREEK CAFE TEAMS WITH YELP TO REACH A LARGER AUDIENCE

LONG BEACH, CA May 5, 2010 -George's Greek Café would love to have you join them for Greek food and fun on June 19, 2010 from 12 NOON – 3 PM at 135 Pine Avenue Long Beach, CA 90802. Enjoy and savor the delicacies of George's Greek authentic cuisine. The entire back banquet patio (able to seat up to 75 people) is reserved for this event, so bring your foodie friends! Yelp is a great way to meet local people along with new local treasures, such as George's! Summer is here and what better way to enjoy the turning of the seasons than with great food, great service and great people. Bring those you know and come prepared to mingle and meet new friends with a common love – FOOD!

Prices depend on order selections; visit the website for exact pricing. Don't miss out on their special Happy Hour prices too! Special for this event only! These include $2 Domestic Draughts and Mimosas and $3 Import Draughts. There is a full bar for those who would like additional choices.

Go to <http://bit.ly/ccYu6Hyelpevent> and click the "I'm in" button to RSVP. For more information on George's Greek Café, please visit www.georgesgreekcafe.com, www.facebook.com/georgesgreekcafe, and www.twitter.com/georgesgreek.

About Georges Greek Cafe

Father and son team, George and Demitri Loizides wish to welcome you to "A little piece of Greece" in Southern California. George's experience encompasses 48 years in the deli and market business and son Demitri has spent over 28 years in the restaurant business. A winning combination! George's now has three locations in Downtown Long Beach, Belmont Shore and Lakewood. For more information on the restaurant locations, menus, or special events log on to their website at: www.georgesgreekcafe.com.

##

Press Contact:

Ellie Palumbo

562-437-1184

Ellie@georgesgreekcafe.com